

Charles Proteus Steinmetz

Last update: July 15, 2025

Basic info

Full name Charles Proteus Steinmetz
Birth year 1865
Location Schenectady, New York, United States
Website https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Charles_Proteus_Steinmetz

Experience*

1914–1923

Union College

Faculty member at the School of Electrical Engineering

I worked pro bono as teacher and researcher.

1890–1923

General Electric Company

Engineer, Researcher, Consultant As a consultant, I worked mainly with ladders and chalk. I also itemized a bill.

1902–1913

Union College

Chair of the School of Electrical Engineering

In addition to my duties as chair, I worked pro bono as teacher and researcher

1889–1891

Eickemeyer & Osterheld Manufacturing Company

Engineer, Researcher

Education

1883–1888[†]

University of Breslau

PhD

Thesis: On Involuntary Self-reciprocal Correspondences in Space Which Are Defined by a Three-Dimensional Linear System of Surfaces of the n th Order

1873–1882

St. John's Gymnasium

Honors student

* References provided upon request.

[†] Due to political reasons, I did not receive my degree until 1903, and when I did it was from Union University.

Main competences

- Chalk
- Itemizing
- Mathematics
- Engineering
- Research

Languages

- German
mother tongue
- English
fluent
- Latin
fluent
- French
fluent
- Greek
fluent